He added more insight into making it work as a family unit elsewhere in the interview. "We are a family through this child. Even if we are not together as a couple, we can still love and respect one another," he said. "That is what our daughter [Noelle] needs to see in order to grow up."

Being there for Noelle means that sometimes Leon has appeared on RHOA, however, he noted, "I've never watched it."
